

MONEY BACK GUARANTEE TERMS

1. The Money Back Guarantee applies to customers who have purchased our resume writing service.
2. To be eligible, customers must actively apply for jobs using the revised resume within the three-month period following the service completion.
3. Customers must provide evidence of their job applications, including date-stamped submission records and job listings applied to.
4. If, after three months, the customer has not received any interview calls, they may request a refund by contacting our customer support team.
5. Refund requests must be submitted within seven days of the three-month period ending.
6. Our team will review the provided documentation and assess the efforts made by the customer in applying for positions.
7. Refunds will be issued if the customer has fulfilled the application requirements, and no interview calls have been received within the stipulated time frame.
8. Customers are encouraged to communicate any concerns or seek assistance during the three-month period to enhance the effectiveness of the service.
9. The Money Back Guarantee does not cover changes in personal circumstances, job market conditions, or factors beyond the control of our resume writing service.
10. This guarantee is valid only for the initial purchaser and is non-transferable.
11. Our company reserves the right to update or modify the terms of the Money Back Guarantee at any time.

By subscribing to the PAKAR RESUME services, the client acknowledges that they have read, understood, and agreed to the terms and conditions outlined in this agreement.
